

Out of all 217 countries...

China

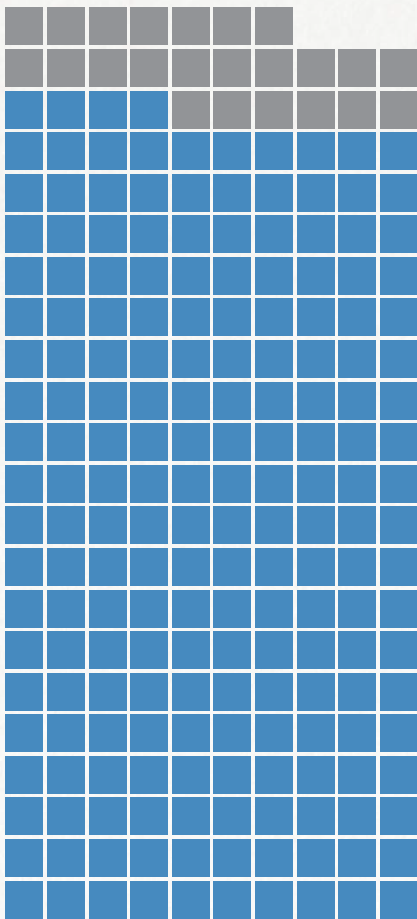

emits the same amount of CO2 as the bottom 201 countries combined

(25.4% of the total)

United States

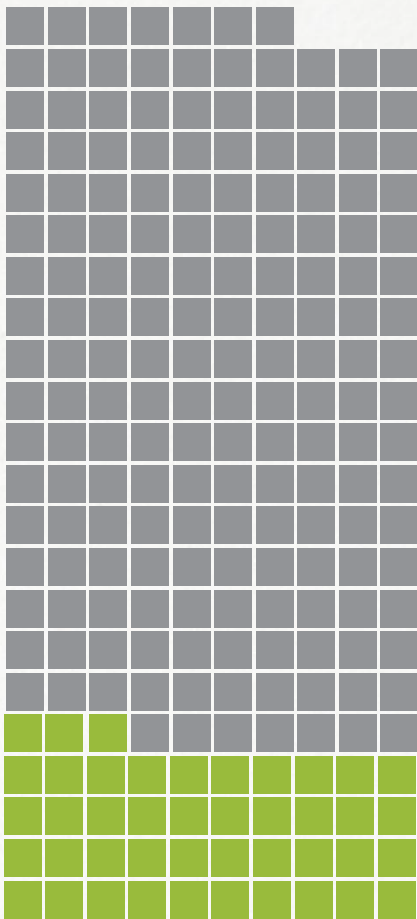

emits the same amount of CO2 as the bottom 194 countries combined

(17.8% of the total)

Pacific Islands Countries

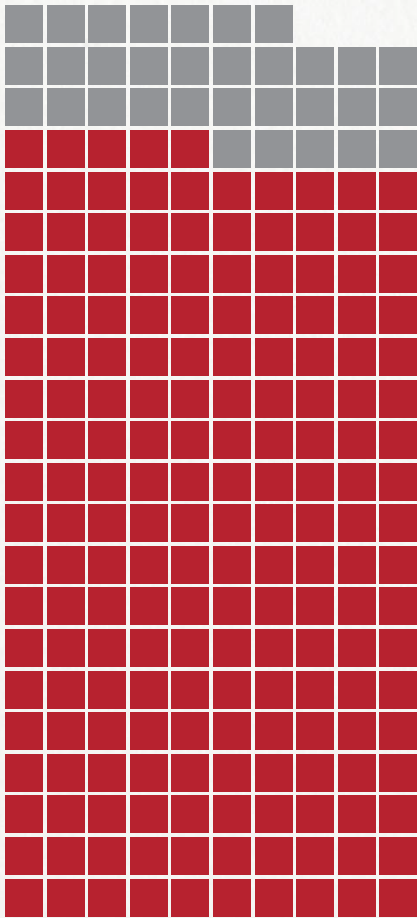

emit the same amount of CO2 as the bottom 43 countries combined

(<0.1% of the total)

China

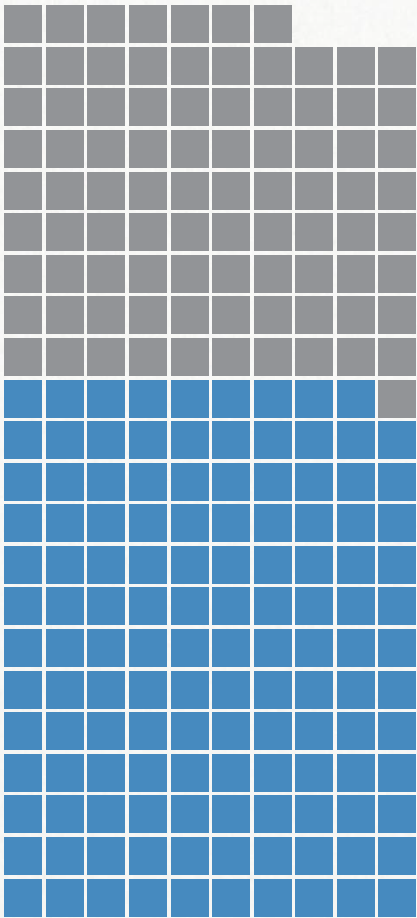

has a population equal to the bottom 185 countries combined

(19.6% of the total)

United States

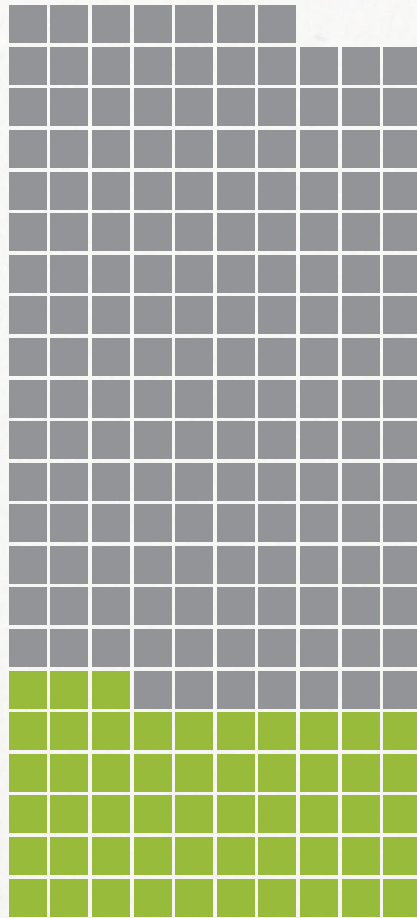

has a population equal to the bottom 129 countries combined

(4.6% of the total)

Pacific Islands Countries

have a population equal to the bottom 53 countries combined

(0.1% of the total)

Pacific Islands Countries include:
American Samoa, Cook Islands, Fiji, French Polynesia, Guam, Kiribati, Nauru, New Caledonia, Niue, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tonga, U.S. Pacific Islands and Vanuatu.